Windy's Mom Says

How Wonderful the Obedience Community Is

As Windy continues with me on our path with retirement from OB on the horizon (six legs to go, a long off ramp!) - we are rejuvenated by the supportive community we are surrounded by. Watching our Novice A members earn their CD's. How awesome it is to see them come from puppy class to their first steps in the ring. Happy for them in their success and being there for them as they approach the next level.

Hearing the support from our longtime friends and helpful hints when we think we hit the wall. Windy and I have been pushing hard the last years and keeping it fresh for such a smart girl is a challenge. Feeling their love and support is huge- knowing that if we don't have our best day, they know and respect her talent!

Getting genuine congrats for Preferred High in Trials from those in the B rings who earn 199-200 frequently. Feeling a great sense of belonging without judgement that we have chosen a bit of a different path for our dogs but still experience the same pressures and challenges.

Being there for the success of our fellow trainers and friends. Being there when Dawn Parison hit a perfect 200. Amazing to watch- thrilled and joyous for her. A deserving score for years of dedication to obedience to the nicest person who has dedicated so much to Glenbard- a role model!

I hope these example of warmth and camaraderie inspire you to join us in the ring! It's our happy place despite the NQ's, the stress, and the "they never did that before"!

Hugs!

My name is George, and I am 13 years old. I started training with my dog, Lacey, our 6 year old Huskimo, this January.

We signed up for dog training so we could really enjoy the dog. Going on walks, playing in the yard, and just relaxing(and helping her learn to not escape out the front door) were some goals I had to enjoy spending even more time with her.

What a good decision it was! The first week of Fur-H had so much to offer. A few basics like sit, stay, watch, heel, touch and so much more were taught from day one. I've learned so many tricks on how to handle the dog. It has really strengthened my friendship with Lacey. To top it all off, she improved in one day: sit,stay, lay stay, and one move where I completely leave her in “stay”,walk in a circle, and return to her. She waits patiently for me to say “good girl,” and looks so proud and excited after going to FUR-H with me.

My favorite part was how nice the two instructors are, Mr.Tom and Ms.Laura. Mr.Tom was so patient with me and taught me so much. I felt like I would not make much progress in the beginning, and am very happy to say I was wrong. Thank you FUR-H team!

My Fellow Glenbardians:

To say the response to my first Help letter was disappointing would be an understatement. I know we can do better. All the Club info & display materials are with Me both nights of class. Seriously, We spent money on the products, so let's use them. Come & get it.

Our Vets offices, Groomers, Pet food stores & Shelters were My thoughts for places to display our material. The other night, at class, I was talking with Pat Senne & She gave Me what I can only describe as an "AH-HA" moment. Hair Stylists!!! I see Gina, who cuts My hair, & we always talk dogs. I'm sure there are other places that I haven't thought of, but You will.

Thanks, in advance, for your help.
