Congratulations to all the award winners. Thanks for the support for the attendees. They were meant for decoration only and they have sentimental value to me for my daughters wedding. Thank you.

Dated:

I lost Simba the same time I lost my Dad. Talk about a broken heart. Even though I have my Old English Bulldogs, I was still heartbroken.

Joe got me Fraiser, yes a Golden, but I never showed him.

I worked Sarge. He is an Old English Bulldog. Talk about a challenge! Well, he got his CD - that's it. Now he's a Truck Dog keeping Joe company.

Now.

Joe and I were talking about a dog for me to work, love and show.

We got Niles, another wonderful gift. He earned his BN title. Now we are working on his Novice, Open and Utility.

Every day is fun with him!
We will go all the way having FUN!

Every day is a blessing with all our dogs. I wouldn't trade anything in the world!
I LOVE MY PUPS VERY MUCH!

I do have to say thank you to everyone who guided me.
And THANK YOU to my Mom and Dad - Love You
Thank you to my wonderful husband!

I enjoy being a part of Glenbard and helping where I can.
Happy Training!
Joanie

Then Simba I came into my life and he got his CD title.

Next 3 Boxers came into my life - Jade, Guy and JB. My Dad and Mom just smiled. I took care of them all - cleaning, feeding and loving them. I had a part-time job to pay for everything. As time passed, they went to heaven. My Dad is like "They are all on your shoulder." I just smiled.

Then my wonderful husband, Joe, got me an early Christmas gift. It was the BEST GIFT EVER! A GOLDEN! I couldn't believe it! Yes, Dawn, I cried, too!

After watching this little pup and thinking of names, 'Simba' came out of my mouth. He looked at me and came running so I named him Simba II. We got our CD title and almost Open.

MEMBER HIGHLIGHT~

Joanig Wisniewski

Once upon a time....

Here is a little story about Joanig and her pups.

The past, present, future

I got started in 4-H dog training and the instructors were from Glenbard Club. They told my Mom about the Club, so my Mom signed me up for beginner class. I loved it there and everyone was so nice.

My first dog was a beagle mix named Sandy and I loved her. When I lost her, I got a 1-year old Golden and I named her Jazz. She took my heart. I showed her in 4-H and I showed her at the Glenbard Trial and she got her CD title. Sadly, I lost her to cancer.

REMEMBER WHEN...

Volume XXXXIII Number 5

May / June, 1985

Editor: Karen Johnson 28 W 685 Rogers Warrenville, Ill. 60555 Phone 393-1792

From the Editor:

The time is here for a serious discussion. Glenbard, like all organizations, has it's "up" and "down" times, and we appear to be in the middle of the "Down". What to do?? It's all up to YOU. The same few people have tried to carry the club for several years now, and they are getting tired. Can't some of you out there get behind them, the officers, training director, instructors and committee heads, and let them know you're pushing too, that you do care? Offer your time or talent to whatever extent you can? Just plain say "thanks", let them know that what they do makes a difference? Each and every one of YOU has something to offer, and if you are reading this, you are a club member and you owe something to the club. Let's get some spirit in the group and work together to make GABOC the best place to train, in every way.

THUD! (Me getting off the old soapbox) Now onto some important matters. In this BARKS you will find some really important information, so please take the time to read it thru. Also, there will be no July BARKS and the August issue will be the annual POETRY ISSUE. If you have any doggy (or otherwise) poems or prose you'd like to share with the club, or if you are original - I can usually count on Roberta Whitesides and George Erzig here - write one for us. Get them to me sometime before August 4.

If you know of a new member who does not receive BARKS, please pass along my address and send me their name etc., I do not always get the new members names real quickly. I am still looking for a co-editor for BARKS, either someone to Xerox and collate and mail or someone to type. If you want to talk about what's involved, call or drop me a note.

Okay, on to the good stuff. Till next issue, remember to keep your dogs cool, train in the cooler parts of the day, and love those dogs.....

TROPHY DONATIONS DUE FOR NOVEMBER TRIAL

How these things slip up on you! July is the deadline to sponsor a trophy for our annual trial. If you wish to sponsor a trophy for your favorite breed or whatever, let JoAnne Bibergall (894-6829) or Janelle Burnett (837-3066) know right away. This is one way you can help to make our trial memorable.

AFTER-THE-PUZZ-TAYLOR-CLINIC-DINNER

For Members only! Join us after the Buzz Taylor Clinic on Saturday for dinner, good conversation and some super old obedience movies provided by Buzz. John Lique and Kerry Murphy have graciously offered their home for this event. Food will be catered so please notify John or Kerry (620-6452) immediately if you will be attending; they need to know how much food to order.

ENTERTAINMENT TONIGHT: DEVELOPING THE RELIABLE JUMPER

Following the June meeting of the Glenbard All Breed Obedience Club, this 30 minutes film by Jean Peterson and Roth Foster will be shown. The film deals with training

IT'S JUST A SIMPLE REQUEST...

1. PLEASE, PLEASE, PLEASE...If you would like to send a communication to the GABOC membership using an email "blast," please direct that email to our new Communications Coordinator, Jim Clarke (President) jaclarke134@comcast.net.
2. Jim keeps an up-to-date roster and will send messages respecting the privacy of all members.
3. This will ensure the message goes to the entire membership in a consistent manner.

Your cooperation is truly appreciated!

PRESIDENT'S REPORT - by Jim Clarke

March has come and gone and with it the Awards Banquet (Thank you Laura Setar), the Wellness Clinic (Thank you Donna Eichman), and our first Fun Match of the year (Thank you Cheri Nicholas and Joan Mazat). April is here, the days are longer, the grass is getting greener; and, on some days you can actually take your dog outside to do a little training. It's all good!

SAYING GOODBYE is never easy. Unfortunately for GABOC, two very valuable people are saying goodbye to our training community. Donna Darland, will be moving to Appleton, WI at the end of April. Donna has been a member of GABOC since 1995. Over the years, Donna has served as Vice President of the Board, Membership Chairman, Agility Chairman, and Beginner Class instructor. Another loss to Glenbard, is Dave Parison. Dave has been a member of GABOC since 1993. While Dave has worn many hats during his tenure at Glenbard he is probably best known as dog-trainer extraordinaire. Dave is leaving Glenbard to pursue his private dog-training interests. Thank you so very much Donna and Dave for your dedication to the club and your years of unselfish service. You are both going to be missed tremendously. As Roy Rogers and Dale Evens once sang, "Happy Trails to you, until we meet again."

One of the things that GABOC prides itself on is our expert teaching staff and obedience classes. While we may have lost Dave Parison and Donna Darland, we are happy to welcome Cheri Nicholas as the 6:00 Beginner instructor and Karen Schlipf as the 6:45 Novice II instructor. Neither of our ladies is new to obedience training. Cheri is definitely not new to the Beginner ring because she has taught many newcomers over the years. Karen Schlipf has been around obedience rings and her expertise includes giving private lessons at the various levels of obedience training. Welcome Cheri and Karen. Thank you so much for volunteering to step up and be our new instructors.

An open Board seat has existed since November. The Board of Directors is very happy to welcome Karen Heitz as the newest member of the Board. Karen will fulfill the remaining term of that position. A few months ago, Karen accepted the very tough job as GABOC'S Registrar. She did so without the blink of an eye. As Registrar, it is her job to "meet and greet" nervous handlers who have signed up for the Puppy or Beginner Classes. Karen is warm, friendly, and very reassuring.

EXCITING BOARD NEWS--At a Board meeting held at my home on Friday, March 2, the Board of Directors unanimously voted to add the position of Communications Coordinator to my already busy computer schedule and job description. The following are the list of email rules that I am asking the entire GABOC membership to live by:

- The Board of Directors will establish the Board position of Communications Coordinator.
- This position shall reside with the club President.
- The President shall seek Board approval before responding to Board-directed communications.
- No reply shall be released by any individual Board member until the entire Board has seen and discussed the reply.
- Any member requesting a communication requiring an "email blast" must send the email to the Communications Coordinator (President) who will send the "blast" to club members.
- The Communications Coordinator will keep an up-to-date list of club memberships and will send messages respecting the privacy of all members..
- This will ensure the message goes to the entire membership in a consistent manner.

Thank You to Joan Mazat for volunteering to host the General/Board Meeting on Friday, April 27, 7:00. Joan's address is 1 N 474 Center Ave., West Chicago. Please call or email and let Joan know if you will be attending (630) 297-5682 or bgirls.mazat7@gmail.com.
